Notification No. 18914, dated the 9th May 1927.

Ordinances 78, 79 and 83 (pages 33 and 34 of Calendar for 1926-27, Vol. I) have been modified as under:—

(i) Ordinance 78 has been amended so as to read as under:—

"In the B.A. Examination there shall be separate lists for each part. The names of candidates who pass in the two divisions of any part at the same time and obtain 60 per cent and over of the total marks in the part shall be arranged in order of merit in the first class; the names of candidates who obtain 50 per cent and over but less than 60 per cent of the total marks shall be arranged in order of merit in the second class; and the names of candidates who obtain 40 per cent and over but less than 50 per cent of the total marks being arranged in alphabetical order in the third class. The names of candidates who pass in the two divisions of any part in different years in accordance with clause (3) of Ordinance 76 and the proviso thereunder shall be arranged in the alphabetical order without being classed.

(ii) Ordinance 79.—Omit the last paragraph and substitute therefor the following paragraph:—

"The names of the candidates who pass in the first and second classes shall be arranged in order of merit; and the names of the candidates who pass in the third class shall be published in alphabetical order."

The Ordinance with the above amendment will read as follows:—

"79. (1) B.Sc. candidates will be permitted to pass the examination in compartments, the compartments being English and Optionals; provided that on the first occasion the candidates appear for both the parts.

(2) The results of the B.Sc. Examination shall be published in three classes as follows:—

The qualification for a first class being 60 per cent.

The qualification for a second class being 50 per cent.

The qualification for a third class being 40 per cent.

Provided that, for the purposes of classification, the maximum marks for the subsidiary subject shall be reduced to 250 and each candidate's marks for the subsidiary subject reduced correspondingly, shall be added to his marks for the main subject, the classification being determined by the total so obtained by the application of the above rule.

Provided that the candidates shall also obtain 35 per cent in English and 35 per cent in the subsidiary subject to pass, the rank and classification being settled by marks in Science subjects only.

Provided, further, that the minimum in the subsidiary subject shall not be insisted upon in the case of candidates who obtain 50 per cent and over of the total marks in the two optional subjects taken together.

The names of the candidates who pass in the first and second classes shall be arranged in order of merit; and the names of the candidates who pass in the third class shall be published in alphabetical order."

(iii) Ordinance 83.—Omit the words "the names in the first class being arranged in order of merit and those in the second and third classes in alphabetical order" and substitute therefor the following words :—

"The names in the first and second classes being arranged in the order of merit and those in the third class in alphabetical order."

The Ordinance with the above amendment will read as follows:—

"A list of successful candidates will be issued by the University Council, the names in the first and second classes being arranged in the order of merit and those in the third class in alphabetical order."

Ordinances 90(B) 4(b)—Fees (page 45 of Calendar for 1926-27, Vol. I) and 98 (pages 48 and 49 of Calendar for 1926-27, Vol. I) have been amended as under :—

(1) Ordinance 90(B) 4(b)—Fees.

Insert the following as separate para at the end of clause (b) :—

"In the case of women candidates, the above scale of fees shall be reduced by a half."

The clause with the amendment will read as follows :—

"(a) * * *

(b) Each candidate shall pay a fee of Rs. 10 for the first, second and third examinations and Rs. 15 for the final examination or part thereof.

In the case of women candidates, the above scale of fees shall be reduced by a half."

(2) Ordinance 98.—

In the last clause of the Ordinance for the words "the above scale of fees," substitute the words "the scale of fees prescribed for the above examinations."

The Ordinance with the amendment will read as follows :—

"98. * * *

In the case of women candidates the scale of fees prescribed for the above examinations shall be reduced by a half."
